

Jonas was born in Gothenburg at Östra Sjukhuset 15th of April 1973. He spent his childhood most of the time in Skåne until he went to school. Jonas began a career as a tourist guide, but then moved on to become a journalist. He started his first company (commercials) 1996 when he moved back to his hometown. There he tried many different works, salesman, sampler, telephone salesman, merchandiser. 1997 Jonas went to Gothenburg University to study Film Theory. After less than a year he couldn't go on any further. Jonas wanted to make film instead of becoming a film critic . He started his film career in 1999 for a Swedish version of Blair Witch Project "Yvonne", but it failed because the guy who owned the camera and the editing software moved to the UK. Best known as "Mr Zombie," and the creator of NEW SWEDISH GENRE CINEMA. Jonas most successful movie is the Swedish extremely lowbudget cult zombie splatter DIE ZOMBIEJAEGER (2005) which has been sold in five different versions worldwide. Today Jonas produce genre films, directs music videos and even do cameos in various lowbudget projects. Even if he works on much higher budget productions his love for the small and indie never died.
